

The Visit To The Mansion

I Keywords

|                                          |              |
|------------------------------------------|--------------|
| 1. stately <sup>stately</sup> | 6. entertain |
| 2. croaked                               | 7. delighted |
| 3. sore                                  | 8. quaint    |
| 4. briskly                               | 9. portrait  |
| 5. shyly                                 | 10. gruff    |

1. briskly - with a lot of energy.

2. sore - painful

3. befriend - make friends with

4. quaint - pretty and old fashioned.

5. hoarse - rough or harsh sound
6. examine - check with <sup>e</sup>interest
7. gruff - rough and low
8. stern - strict and serious
9. dismay - disappointment
10. perch - settle ✓

III Write the antonyms

1. glad - annoyed
2. refuse - accept
3. gruff - soft
4. bright - dull ✓

IV Forme sentences using the words/phrases.

1. Set out - I set out with my family for a picnic last Saturday.

3/7/26 entertain - The magician entertained us with his tricks.

V Read the extract and answer the questions.

"You could come and visit us"

1. Who is 'us' in the context?

Ans. Jo's family is the 'us' in the context.

2. Why did she invite Laurie home?

Ans. Jo, invited Laurie home because he was lonely and felt sad for him.

3. How did she convince Laurie that he was welcome?

Ans She told him that he would not be disturbing since they were neighbors.

6.7.26

Q Answer the following

Q1 How did Laurie react when he saw the snowball near his window?

Ans When Laurie saw the snowball near his window, he peeped out to see who had thrown it up. The moment he saw Jo, he was very happy and smiled at her.

Q2 How would you describe Jo?

Ans Jo is an intelligent girl who loves to read books. She is a friendly girl who makes friends with her lonely neighbour. She is a kind and giving girl. She visits Laurie taking a sweet dish for Laurie. She is generous as she takes her kittens to his house so that they could play with them. She offers to read to Laurie while he rests.

Q3. Why did Jo get into a panic when the doorbell rang?

Ans. Jo got into a panic when the doorbell rang, thinking that it was Laurie's <sup>grandfather</sup> grandfather. She was afraid that he would think that she was <sup>intruding into</sup> intruding their home.

Q4. Do you think Laurie's grandfather was a strict man? Give reasons.

Self Work

Ans. No, because there was kindness in his eyes and he even let Laurie visit Jo's house.

Corrections

Ans. No, I don't think Laurie's grandfather was a strict man. He was kind towards Jo and her father. He gave Laurie <sup>permission</sup> to visit Jo's family. He watched Jo and Laurie talk happily and understood how <sup>lonely</sup> lonely Laurie was.

6/7/26