

PRESIDENCY SCHOOL

Bangalore/ Mangalore
Work Sheet

Subject: Social Studies
The Western Desert

Grade: IV

Name: _____ Section: _____ Roll No: _____

I. Fill in the Blanks

1. The Thar Desert is mainly located in _____.
2. Large heaps of sand are called _____.
3. A place with water in a desert is called an _____.
4. The Thar Desert receives very _____ rainfall.
5. The ship of the desert is the _____.

II. Choose the Correct Answer

1. The Thar Desert is mainly found in:
☐ Rajasthan ☐ Kerala ☐ Assam
2. Which is a desert plant?
☐ Cactus ☐ Lotus ☐ Banana
3. Desert climate is generally:
☐ Hot and dry ☐ Cold and wet ☐ Cool and rainy

III. True or False

1. Desert plants have special adaptations. _____
2. Camels can walk easily on sand. _____
3. Desert regions receive heavy rainfall. _____
4. Some people rear sheep, goats and camels. _____
5. People in deserts need to conserve water. _____

IV. Answer Briefly

1. How do camels survive in the desert?

2. Name two occupations of desert people.

3. Why do some desert people lead a nomadic life?

V. Fill in the Blanks

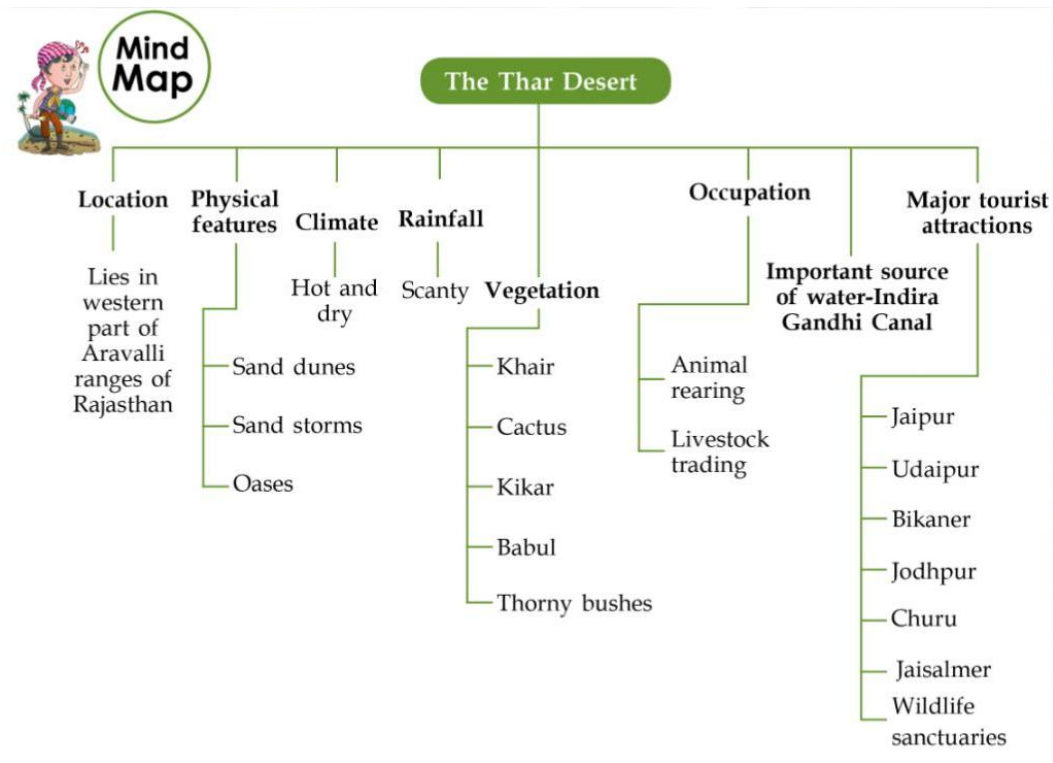

1. _____ help bring water to dry areas.
2. People store water in _____.
3. Water conservation is important in the _____ Desert.
4. _____ is a famous Rajasthani folk dance.

VI. Answer Briefly

1. Why is livestock important to desert people?
-

2. Why are canals and tanks useful in desert areas?
-

3. Name one food, dress or festival associated with Rajasthan.
-

QUICK GLANCE

- The Western Desert, also known as the Thar Desert, lies in the western part of the Aravalli ranges of Rajasthan and covers a large part of Rajasthan.
- The climate of the desert is extreme. It remains hot and dry throughout the year.
- The days are hot and nights are cold in the desert.
- Plants such as cactus, kikar, khair, babul and thorny bushes are found in the desert.
- Oases are green places in the desert that have water and where trees grow.
- The camel is the only means of transport to cross vast sandy areas.
- The Indira Gandhi Canal has changed the life of the Thar Desert region.
- After Independence, the desert region is progressing rapidly.